

Police Intelligence.

CHARGE OF FORGERY.

A man named John Murray, alias James Hurley, was arrested yesterday by officer Smith, charged with having forged two letters, by which he got $4 in money from two clergymen. From the complaint it appears that the accused wrote a letter purporting to have been signed by the Rev. J. L. Lupick, to the Rev. G. A. Hale, residing at 190 Vandewater street, requesting him for a loan of $500. Mr. Hale, it is alleged, sent the receipt of this letter, having written on it "for dollar." Murray then, it is alleged, wrote a letter to the Rev. John M. Read, of Seventh street, purporting to have been from the Rev. Mr. Hale, on the strength of which, it is said, he obtained $3. All the letters have been forged, and the forged signatures are perfectly impersonated with the intent to obtain money under false pretences. The accused was taken before Justice Bogart yesterday afternoon, who committed him to prison for examination.

CHARGE OF ATTEMPTING TO PASS BOGUS HALF DOLLARS.

A man named Elias P. Perkins, was arrested on Thursday night, by officer Smith of the Ninth ward police, charged with having attempted on two different occasions to pass counterfeit half dollars. It is alleged that the accused went into the store of George Grossbeck, residing at 190 Vandewater street, requesting him for a loan of $500. Mr. Hale, it is alleged, sent the receipt of this letter, having written on it "for dollar."

Murray then, it is alleged, wrote a letter to the Rev. John M. Read, of Seventh street, purporting to have been from the Rev. Mr. Hale, on the strength of which, it is said, he obtained $3. All the letters have been forged, and the forged signatures are perfectly impersonated with the intent to obtain money under false pretences. The accused was taken before Justice Bogart yesterday afternoon, who committed him to prison for examination.

CHARGE OF ATTEMPTING TO PASS BOGUS HALF DOLLARS.

A man named Elias P. Perkins, was arrested on Thursday night, by officer Smith of the Ninth ward police, charged with having attempted on two different occasions to pass counterfeit half dollars. It is alleged that the accused went into the store of George Grossbeck, residing at 190 Vandewater street, requesting him for a loan of $500. Mr. Hale, it is alleged, sent the receipt of this letter, having written on it "for dollar."

Murray then, it is alleged, wrote a letter to the Rev. John M. Read, of Seventh street, purporting to have been from the Rev. Mr. Hale, on the strength of which, it is said, he obtained $3. All the letters have been forged, and the forged signatures are perfectly impersonated with the intent to obtain money under false pretences. The accused was taken before Justice Bogart yesterday afternoon, who committed him to prison for examination.

ADVERTISEMENTS RENEWED EVERY DAY

SALES AT AUCTION.

AUCTION NOTICE—CONTINUATION SALE OF A fine assortment of elegant jewelry.—EDWARD SCHENKEL will sell at auction on Saturday, 24th inst., at 10 o'clock, at his residence, 116 Wall street, gold English and diamond set bracelets, rings, locket, chain, etc., diamond and seed pearl, diamond and emerald, diamond and sapphires, etc.; gold, silver, and other celebrated makers; elegant mosaic gold stone bracelets; suits of pin and earring, gold, foil, guard and vest chains, châtelaines, &c., brooches, rings, pins, sleeve buttons, and other articles of jewelry of the finest Parisian make. Sale positive.

LIBERTY H. NIOLAY, AUCTIONEER.—SPRING FURNITURE AND HOUSEHOLD PROPERTY.—The unengaged beggs leave to inform his friends and the public that he is preparing, as usual to give his personal attention to direct furniture sales at auction, at the residences of families that intend breaking up, he keeping this spring.

ALBERT H. NIOLAY, Auctioneer, No. 4 Broad st.

AUCTION NOTICE—J. BOGART, AUCTIONEER.—BY S. Bogart—this day, at 10½ o'clock, at 131 Water street, near Wall, mortgage sale, by virtue of several chattel mortgages, the furniture and fixtures of a first floor room, now occupied, consisting of seven pieces of mirrored, celebrated gold, pine, spiced mahogany, etc., in Prisces, valued at $300; two piece, spiced mahogany counter, engravings, cut decanters, tumblers, winess, chin punch bowls, pitchers, marble top tables, case seat chairs and stools, gas fixtures, oilcloth, stoves and pipes, iron ranges and cooking utensils, copper pans, iron table kettles, iron pots, iron washstands, iron napkins, castors, crockery, bedsteads and bedding, &c.

F. S. STALNECHY, Attorney for mortgages.

AUCTION NOTICE—SAMUEL O'GODD, AUCTIONEER.—A. O'Godd will sit at his store, 66 Nassau street, this morning, at 10½ o'clock, household furniture, sofas, chairs, mahogany, rosewood and other bureaux, rosewood suites in brocante, chamber painted suites, rosewood and mahogany secretary and bookcases, lounges, piano, ten top centre and other tables, oak, walnut and mahogany extension tables, paintings, engravings, &c. Sale positive for cash.

TO Nervous Sufferers.—A Retired Clergyman, restored to health in a few days, after many years of great nervous suffering, is anxious to make known the means of cure. Will send (free) anywhere the prescription used on receiving a letter, post paid. Direct to Rev. John M. Dagnall, 57 Fulton street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Pulmonary Diseases.—Dr. H. H. Root, author of the "People's Medical Light-house," and inventor of the infallible lung barometer, treats diseases of the lungs with the greatest success, because he just ascertains the exact nature and extent of the disease with his uncaring instrument, and then applies such remedies as he prescribes. He also administers various nostrums, particularly adapted to the lungs. Inhalation is also recommended as an assistant, and a proper medicine for that purpose given with other medicines.

Moustache, Moustache, or Whiskers, or hair forced to grow strong and thick in every place of my body, I want to injure the skin. Six weeks went to a part of the country. Rev. E. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

ALLIED INDEPENDENT ASSAULT.

Yesterday, Officer Curry arrested a man named John Kubo, who stands charged with having entered the yard of Ward School No. 38, situated in Thirteenth street, near Sixth avenue, and there not only insulted a number of little girls from 10 to 14 years of age, but also committed indecent assaults upon the persons of two of the children. One of the children, at the moment of the attack upon the school, Miss Wright, made an affidavit against the accuser, and was taken before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF MUTINY ON SHIP BOARD.

John Collins, William Smith, and Joseph Stone, seamen belonging to the John G. Carter, now lying in the vitrion, opposite Wall street, were arrested for fighting on board the vessel, and disobeying the orders of the officers, and being drunk and disorderly. There is a charge of larceny also made against one of the men. They were locked up in the Tombs for examination.

ALLIED SHOOTING AFFRAY IN A PORTER'S HOUSE.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

John Collins, William Smith, and Joseph Stone, seamen belonging to the John G. Carter, now lying in the vitrion, opposite Wall street, were arrested for fighting on board the vessel, and disobeying the orders of the officers, and being drunk and disorderly. There is a charge of larceny also made against one of the men. They were locked up in the Tombs for examination.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys engaged in playing dominoes. One man, named John Duane, received the contents of a pistol, loaded with shot, in his face, which will probably disfigure him for life; while others were severely bruised and cut by the arrival of the police. The man named C. H. Cushing was sent on by Justice Pearcey, he committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before Justice Pearcey, at the Second District Police Court, who committed him to prison, preparatory to being conveyed before the United States Court.

CHARGE OF STARVING.

A Kelly row occurred on Thursday night in a drinking saloon in Avenue C, near Tenth street, between a number of men and boys